

Easy V-Stitch Baby Blanket

A free crochet pattern by:
Crafty Tuesday Crochet
Craftytuesdaycrochet.wordpress.com
craftytuesdaycrochet@aol.com

Notes:

Materials Needed:

- Super Bulky (6) weight yarn - 2 balls (approximately 216 yards total) More yarn is needed if doing any size other than newborn baby
- 8.00 MM (L) crochet hook
- Scissors
- 6.0 MM crochet hook to weave in ends (or if you have a sewing needle big enough to fit the yarn, you may use that)
- Measuring tape to measure the blanket.

Abbreviations Used in Pattern:

Ch - chain

Dc - double crochet

Sc - single crochet

Ch sp- chain space

Sl st - slip stitch

St - stitch

Pattern:

Foundation: Ch multiple of 3 + 5 to desired length

Row 1: Dc1+ch1+dc1 into 4th ch from hook. Skip 2ch. Dc1+ch1+dc1 into that 3rd ch. Repeat until you have one chain left. Dc1 only into that ch. Ch3 and turn work

Row 2: dc1+ch1+dc1 into ch sp (or in the middle of the v) of last “cluster” (your dc1+ch1+dc1) of previous round. Repeat until you are left with only the three chains from the foundation chain. Dc1 into space between last cluster and ch3. ch3 and turn work

Row 3-Finish is a repeat of Row 2.

Border: Ch1. Sc1 into each st all around blanket. Ch1 to turn at the beginning of each blanket side. Sl st into initial ch1 sp.

Ch 1, cut yarn & pull yarn through with hook. Use smaller hook to weave in all ends.